7. Payment of Delinquent Assessment by Transferee. Any person who acquires an interest in a unit, except through foreclosure of an institutional first mortgage of record, or by the institutional mortgagee's acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure including, without limitation, persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales, shall not be entitled to occupancy of the unit or enjoyment of the common elements until such time as all unpaid assessments due and owing by the former owners have been paid. The Association, acting through its Board of Directors, shall have the right to assign its claim and lien rights for the recovery of any unpaid assessments to the Developer, or to any unit owner or group of unit owners, or to any third party.

8. Developer shall be exempt from assessments as provided hereinabove in Article VII, Section 3.

ARTICLE XII

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SALE OR RENTAL OR OTHER ALIENATION OR MORTGAGING OF CONDOMINIUM UNITS

1. Sale or Rental of Units - Windwood Homeowners Association to Have Right of First Refusal.

(a) Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions for Windwood. Under the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions for Windwood, the sale and rental of all dwelling units in the WINDWOOD PROJECT, including the Condominium units in this Condominium, are subject to the restrictions contained in said Declaration which are set forth hereafter.

(b) Restriction on Sale and Leasing. No Condominium Unit owner, other than Developer, may sell, lease or otherwise transfer a Condominium Unit, except in compliance with the following provisions.

(c) Definitions. For purposes of this Article, the term "Outside Offer" shall mean a bona fide offer from a third party to purchase or lease a Condominium Unit. The term "Outside Offeror" shall mean the third party who has submitted an Outside Offer.

(d) Notice of Outside Offer. Any Condominium Unit owner who receives an Outside Offer which he intends to accept shall give written notice by certified mail to the Board of Directors of the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. of the receipt of such Outside Offer. Such notice shall also state the name and address of the Outside Offeror, an executed copy of the sales contract or a copy of the proposed lease, together with such other information concerning the Outside Offeror as the Board of Directors may reasonably require. This notice to the Board of Directors shall constitute an offer by the Condominium Unit owner to sell or lease his Dwelling Unit (as the case may be) to the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. or its nominee, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer, and shall also constitute a warranty and representation by the Condominium Unit owner to the Association that the Outside Offer is bona fide in all respects.

(e) Association's Right of First Refusal. The Windwood Homeowners Association shall have the right of first refusal to purchase or lease the Condominium Unit (as the case may be), in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer. The Association's right of first refusal shall be exercised within thirty (30) days following receipt of notice from the Unit owner and all other information requested by the Association, by giving written notice to the Unit owner by certified mail at his last known address. In the event the Association exercises its right of first refusal, the sale and purchase shall close, or the lease shall be executed (as the case may be), in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer, within sixty (60) days following the Association's exercise of its right of first refusal. In the event of a sale and purchase, at closing, the Condominium Unit owner shall convey title to the Association, or its nominee, by statutory warranty deed, and all documentary stamp taxes and other taxes in connection with the transaction shall be paid by the Unit owner. Title shall be good and marketable and insurable and the Unit owner shall deliver to the Association an abstract or title insurance commitment and policy at his expense. Real estate taxes, mortgage interest, if any, and Common Expenses shall be prorated between the Unit owner and the Association, as of the closing date. In the event of a lease, the Unit owner shall execute and deliver to the Association, or its nominee, an executed lease between the Unit owner, as lessor, and the Association, or its nominee, as lessee, for the rental and term contained in the Outside Offer.

(f) Continuation of Right of First Refusal. In the event the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. or its nominee shall fail to exercise its right of first refusal within the time period specified hereinabove, the Condominium Unit owner shall be free to accept the Outside Offer within sixty (60) days following the earlier of: (a) Notice from the Association of its election not to exercise its right of first refusal, or (b) the expiration of the period within which the Association could have exercised the right of first refusal. If the Unit owner shall not accept the Outside Offer in writing within such sixty (60) day period, or if the Outside Offer shall have been accepted within such sixty (60) day period but the sale or lease was not closed in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer, then the Unit owner shall be required to comply with all terms and provisions of this Article in the event of any proposed subsequent sale or lease of the Condominium Unit.

(g) Form of Conveyance to Outside Offeror. Any deed or lease to an Outside Offeror shall state that the acceptance thereof by the Grantee or Lessee shall constitute an acknowledgment and assumption of all provisions of the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions for Windwood, the Declaration of Condominium for this Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws for the Homeowners Association and the Condominium Association and the Rules and Regulations promulgated by both Associations, and all other agreements and documents affecting the WINDWOOD PROJECT and this Condominium as the same may be amended from time to time.

(h) Form of Lease. Any lease of a Condominium Unit by an Outside Offeror shall be consistent with this Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Windwood Association, as well as the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium Association, and shall specifically provide: (a) that the lease may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned without the prior written consent of the Homeowners Association; (b) that the lessee shall not assign his interest in the lease, or sublet all or any portion of the Condominium Unit, without the prior written consent of the Homeowners Association; and (c) that the Homeowners Association shall have the authority, but shall not be obligated, to terminate the lease and/or bring summary proceedings to evict the lessee in the name of the lessor in the event of either a default by the lessee under the lease, or a foreclosure of the Assessment Lien. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any lease entered into by the Homeowners Association, or Condominium Association, as lessee, shall provide that the Association may assign its interest in the lease and may sublease all or any portion of the Condominium Unit.

(i) Transfer Void. Any purported sale or lease of a Condominium Unit in violation of this Article shall be voidable at any time within sixty (60) days following the recordation of the deed of conveyance or the execution of the lease (as the case may be), at the election of the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. In the event of an unauthorized lease, and if the Association shall so elect, the Condominium Unit owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Association to institute legal proceedings to evict the purported lessee, in the name of the Unit owner as the purported lessor. The Unit owner shall execute a power of attorney, or such other documents as may be required by the Homeowners Association, in order to evidence its authority to act under this Section. The Condominium Unit owner shall also reimburse the Association for all expenses incurred in connection with such proceedings, including without limitation, attorney's fees and costs.

(j) Exceptions. The foregoing restrictions contained in this Article shall not apply to Condominium Units owned by, or leased to, the Developer, or by or to any Institutional Mortgagee who acquires title by foreclosure or by a deed in lieu of foreclosure. The Developer and such Institutional Mortgagees shall have the right to sell, lease or sublease any Condominium Units which they own or lease without the approval of either the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. or the Condominium Association.

(k) Waiver of Right of First Refusal. The right of first refusal held by the Homeowners Association may be released or waived only in the manner provided in this Article. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, in no event shall the Homeowners Association be obligated to exercise its right of first refusal.

ARTICLE XIII

INSURANCE PROVISIONS

1. LIABILITY INSURANCE.

The Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall obtain public liability and property damage insurance covering all of the common elements of the Condominium and insuring the Condominium Association, the unit owners and the common unit owners, as its and their interests appear, in such amounts and providing such coverage as the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association may determine from time to time, provided that the minimum amount of coverage shall be $100,000/$300,000/$20,000. Premiums for the payment of such insurance shall be paid by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, and such premiums shall be charged as a common expense.

2. CASUALTY INSURANCE.

(a) Purchase of Insurance. The Condominium Association shall obtain fire and extended coverage insurance and vandalism and malicious mischief insurance insuring all of the insurable improvements within and leased by the Condominium, including personal property owned by the Condominium Association, if any, in and for the interests of the Association, all unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, in a company acceptable to the standards set by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. The premiums for such coverages and other expenses in connection with said insurance shall be paid by the Condominium Association, and shall be charged as a common expense. The Company or companies with whom the Association shall place its insurance coverage, as provided in this Declaration, must be good and responsible companies authorized to do business in the State of Florida.

(b) Mortgagee Approval. The institutional first mortgagee holding the greatest dollar amount of first mortgages encumbering Condominium Units in this Condominium shall have the right to approve the policies and the company or companies who are the insurers under the insurance placed by the Condominium Association, as herein provided, and the amounts thereof. The insurance company or companies must be authorized to do business in the State of Florida. Further, the institutional first mortgagee holding the greatest dollar amount of first mortgages encumbering Condominium Units in this Condominium shall have the right to approve the Insurance Trustee, which Trustee must be a bank located in Palm Beach County, Florida, having trust powers; and the right to approve the Insurance Agent and the location of the Insurance Agent, which Insurance Agent shall have an office located in Dade, Broward or Palm Beach Counties. The rights to approve mentioned above shall always be given to the institutional first mortgagee holding the greatest dollar amount of first mortgages encumbering Condominium Units in this Condominium property, and in the absence of the action of said mortgagee, then the Condominium Association shall have the said rights, without qualification.

(c) Loss Payable Provisions-Insurance Trustee. All policies purchased by the Condominium Association shall be for the benefit of the Association, and all unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear. However, the Insurance Trustee shall be named insured and it shall not be necessary to name the Condominium Association or the unit owners; however, mortgagee endorsements shall be issued. Such policies shall be deposited with the Insurance Trustee (as hereinafter defined), who must first acknowledge that the policies and any proceeds thereof will be held in accordance with the terms hereof. Said policies shall provide that all insurable proceeds payable on account of loss or damage shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee, which may be any bank in Florida with trust powers as may be approved by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, which Trustee is herein referred to as the "Insurance Trustee", subject, however, to the paramount right of the institutional mortgagee specified in the preceding paragraph to designate and appoint the Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for the payment of premiums not for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds, nor for the form or content of the policies. The sole duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold the same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein, and for the benefit of the Association and the unit owners and their respective mortgagees, in the following shares, but such shares need not be set forth upon the records of the Insurance Trustee:

(i) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to common elements - an undivided share for each unit owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant to this unit.

(ii) Condominium Units. Proceeds on account of Condominium Units shall be in the following undivided shares:

(1) Partial Destruction. When units are to be repaired and restored, for the owners of the damaged units, in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each unit.

(2) Total Destruction of Condominium Improvements, or where "very substantial" damage occurs and the Condominium Improvements are not to be restored, as provided hereinafter in this Article, for the owners of all Condominium Units, each owner's share being in proportion to his share in the common elements appurtenant to his Condominium Unit.

(iii) Mortgages. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to a unit, the share of the unit owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the unit owners as their interests may appear; provided, however, that no mortgagee shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether or not any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired.

(d) Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners and expended or disbursed after first paying or making provision for the payment of the expenses of the Insurance Trustee in the following manner:

(i) Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds were paid is to be repaired and restored, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof, as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, all remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a unit and may be enforced by said mortgagee. Said remittances shall be made solely to an institutional first mortgagee when requested by such institutional first mortgagee whose mortgage provides that it has the right to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment of reduction of its mortgage debt.

(ii) Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be repaired or restored, the proceeds shall be disbursed to the beneficial owners; remittance to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee to a unit and may be enforced by such mortgagee. Said remittances shall be made solely to an institutional first mortgagee when requested by such institutional first mortgagee whose mortgage provides that it has the right to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment of its mortgage debt. In the event of loss or damage to personal property belonging to the Condominium Association and should the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association determine not to replace such personal property as may be lost or damaged, the proceeds shall be disbursed to the beneficial owners as surplus in the manner elsewhere stated herein.

(iii) Certificate. In making distribution to unit owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association, as to the names of the unit owners and their respective shares of the distribution, approved in writing by an attorney authorized to practice law in the State of Florida, a title insurance company or abstract company authorized to do business in the State of Florida. Upon request of the Insurance Trustee, the Association shall forthwith deliver such certificate.

(e) Loss Within A Single Unit. If loss shall occur within a single unit, or units, without damage to the common elements and/or the party wall between units, the provisions of Article XIII, Section 2, Paragraph (f) below, shall apply.

84975 P1793

(f) Loss Less Than "Very Substantial". Where a loss or damage occurs within a unit, or units, or to the common elements, or to any unit or units and the common elements, but said loss is less than "very substantial" (as hereinafter defined), it shall be obligatory upon the Condominium Association and the unit owner(s) to repair, restore and rebuild the damage caused by said loss. Where such loss or damage is less than "very substantial";

(i) The Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repairing and restoration.

(ii) If the damage or loss is limited to the common elements with none or minimum damage or loss to any individual units, and if such damage or loss to the common elements is less than $5,000.00, the insurance proceeds shall be endorsed by the Insurance Trustee over to the Condominium Association, and the Association shall promptly contract for the repair and restoration of the damage.

(iii) If the damage or loss involves individual units encumbered by institutional first mortgages, as well as the common elements, or if the damage is limited to the common elements alone, but it is in excess of $5,000.00, the insurance proceeds shall be disbursed by the Insurance Trustee for the repair and restoration of the property upon the written direction and approval of the Condominium Association; provided, however, that upon the request of an institutional first mortgagee, the written approval shall also be required of the institutional first mortgagee owning and holding the first recorded mortgage encumbering a Condominium Unit, so long as it owns and holds any mortgage encumbering a Condominium Unit. At such time as the aforesaid institutional first mortgagee is not the holder of a mortgage on a unit, then this right of approval and designation shall pass to the institutional first mortgagee having the highest dollar indebtedness on units in the Condominium property. Should written approval be required, as aforesaid, it shall be said mortgagee's duty to give written notice thereof to the Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon the certificate of the Condominium Association, and the aforesaid institutional first mortgagee's approval is required as to the payee and the amount to be paid from said proceeds. All payees shall deliver said bills and waivers of mechanics' liens to the Insurance Trustee and execute any affidavit required by law or by the Condominium Association, the aforesaid institutional first mortgagee and the Insurance Trustee, and deliver same to the Insurance Trustee. In addition to the foregoing, the institutional first mortgagee whose approval may be required, as aforesaid, shall have the right to require the Condominium Association to obtain a Completion, Performance and Payment Bond in such form and amount and with a bonding company authorized to do business in the State of Florida as is acceptable to the said mortgagee.

(iv) Subject to the foregoing, the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall have the right and obligation to negotiate and contract for the repair and restoration of the premises.

(v) If the net proceeds of the insurance are insufficient to pay for the estimated cost of restoration and repair (or for the actual cost thereof if the work has actually been done), the Condominium Association shall promptly, upon determination of the deficiency, levy a special assessment against all apartment unit owners in proportion to the apartment unit owner's share in the common elements for that portion of the deficiency as is attributable to the cost for restoration of the common elements, and against the individual owners for that portion of the deficiency as is attributable to his individual apartment unit; provided, however, that if the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association finds that it cannot determine with reasonable certainty the portion of the deficiency attributable to a specific individual damaged unit(s), then the Board of Directors shall levy an assessment for the total deficiency against all of the apartment unit owners' share in the common elements, just as though all of the said damage had occurred in the common elements. The special assessment funds shall be delivered by the Condominium Association to the Insurance Trustee, and added by said Insurance Trustee to the proceeds available for the repair and restoration of the property.

(vi) In the event the insurance proceeds are sufficient to pay for the cost of restoration and repair, or in the event the insurance proceeds are insufficient but additional funds are raised by special assessment within ninety (90) days after the casualty so that sufficient funds are on hand to fully pay for such restoration and repair, then no mortgagee shall have the right to require the application of insurance proceeds to the payment of its loan; provided, however, that this provision shall be waived by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, in favor of any institutional first mortgagee upon request therefor at any time. To the extent that any insurance proceeds are required to be paid over to such mortgagee, the apartment unit owner shall be obliged to replenish the funds so paid over, and said apartment unit owner and his unit shall be subject to special assessment for such sum.

(g) "Very Substantial" Damage. As used in this Declaration, or any other context dealing with this Condominium, the term "very substantial" damage shall mean loss or damage whereby three-fourths (3/4ths) or more of the total unit space in the condominium is rendered untenable, or loss or damage whereby seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the total amount of insurance coverage (placed as per Article XIII, Section 2, Paragraph (a), becomes payable. Should such "very substantial" damage occur, then:

(i) The Condominium Association shall promptly obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost of repair and restoration thereof.

(ii) The provisions of Article XIII, Section 2, Paragraph (f)(vi) shall not be applicable to any institutional first mortgagee who shall have the right, if its mortgage so provides, to require application of the insurance proceeds to the payment or reduction of its mortgage debt. The Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall ascertain as promptly as possible the net amount of insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair.

(iii) Thereupon a membership meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association to be held not later than sixty (60) days after the casualty to determine the wishes of the membership with reference to the abandonment of the Condominium project, subject to the following:

(1) If the net insurance proceeds available for restoration and repair, together with the funds advanced by apartment unit owners to replace insurance proceeds paid over to institutional first mortgagees, are sufficient to cover the cost thereof so that no special assessment is required, then the Condominium property shall be restored and repaired, unless two-thirds (2/3rds) of the unit owners of this Condominium shall vote to abandon the Condominium project, in which case the Condominium property shall be removed from the provisions of the law by the recording of an instrument terminating this Condominium in the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida, which said instrument shall further set forth the facts effecting the termination, certified by the Condominium Association and executed by its President and Secretary. The termination of the Condominium shall become effective upon the recording of said instrument and the unit owners shall thereupon become owners as tenants in common in the property; i.e., the real, personal, tangible and intangible personal property, remaining structures of the Condominium and their undivided interests in the property shall be the same as their undivided interests in the common elements of this Condominium prior to its termination, and the mortgages and liens upon Condominium Parcels shall become mortgages and liens upon the undivided interests of such tenants in common, with the same priority as existed prior to the termination of the Condominium.

(2) If the net proceeds available for restoration and repair, together with funds advanced by apartment unit owners to replace insurance proceeds paid over to institutional first mortgages, are not sufficient to cover the costs thereof so that a special assessment will be required, and if a majority of the unit owners of this Condominium vote against such special assessment and to abandon the Condominium project, then it shall be so abandoned and the Condominium property removed from the provisions of the law and the Condominium terminated, as set forth above, and the unit owners shall be tenants in common in the property in such undivided interests, and all mortgages and liens upon the Condominium Parcels shall encumber the undivided interests of such tenants in common, as is provided above. In the event a majority of the unit owners of this Condominium vote in favor of special assessments, the Condominium Association shall immediately levy such assessment and, thereupon, the Association shall proceed to negotiate and contract for such repairs, and restoration subject to the provisions of Paragraph (f), Sub-sections (iii) and (iv) above. The Special Assessment funds shall be delivered by the Association to the Insurance Trustee and added by said Trustee to the proceeds available for the restoration and repair of the property. The proceeds shall be disbursed by the Insurance Trustee for the repair and restoration of the property as provided in Paragraph (f), Sub-section (iii) above. To the extent that any insurance proceeds are paid over to such mortgagee and in the event it is determined not to abandon the Condominium Project and to vote a special assessment, the apartment unit owner shall be obliged to replenish the funds so paid over to his mortgagee, and said apartment unit owner and his unit shall be subject to special assessment for such sum.

(iv) In the event any dispute shall arise as to whether or not "very substantial" damage has occurred, it is agreed that such a finding made by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, shall be binding upon all unit owners.

(h) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of repair and restoration shall be from the insurance proceeds, and if there is a balance in the funds held by the Insurance Trustee after the payment of all cost of the repair and restoration, such balance shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of the funds, in the manner elsewhere provided herein.

(i) Certificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a Certificate of the Condominium Association, certifying as to whether or not the damaged property is to be repaired and restored. Upon request of the Insurance Trustee, the Association shall forthwith deliver such Certificate.

(j) Plans and Specifications. Any repair and restoration must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building, or as the building was last constructed, or according to the plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If any material or substantial change is contemplated, the approval of all institutional first mortgagees shall also be required.

(k) Association's Power to Compromise Claim. The Condominium Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each unit owner for the purpose of compromising and settling claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association, and to execute and deliver releases therefor upon the payment by the Association, and to execute and deliver releases therefor upon the payment of claims.

(l) Institutional Mortgagee's Right to Advance Premiums. Should the Condominium Association fail to pay such premiums when due or should the Association fail to comply with other insurance requirements of the Institutional Mortgagee holding the greatest dollar volume of unit mortgages, said Institutional Mortgagee(s) shall have the right, at its option, to order insurance policies and to advance such sums as are required to maintain or procure such insurance and, to the extent of the money so advanced, said mortgagee shall be subrogated to the assessment and lien rights of the Association as against the individual unit owners for the payment of such items of common expense.

3. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION POLICY - to meet the requirements of law.

4. Such other insurance as the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

5. Each individual apartment unit owner shall be responsible for purchasing, at his own expense, liability insurance to cover accidents occurring within his own unit and for purchasing insurance upon his own personal property.

6. If available, and where applicable, the Condominium Association, shall endeavor to obtain policies which provide that the Insurer waives its right or subrogation as to any claims against unit owners, the Association, their respective servants, agents and guests.

ARTICLE XIV

USE RESTRICTIONS

1. The owner of a unit shall occupy and use his unit as a single family private dwelling for himself and the members of his family and his social guests, and for no other purpose.

2. The unit owner shall not permit or suffer anything to be done or kept in his unit or common elements which will increase the rate of insurance on the Condominium property, or which will obstruct or interfere with the rights of other unit owners or annoy them by unreasonable noises, or otherwise; nor shall the unit owners commit or permit any nuisance, immoral or illegal acts in or about the Condominium property.

3. Unit owners may keep as pets, birds, cats, tropical fish or dogs, with the exception of Pit Bulls. Such pets shall be on a leash or carried when in the Common Property. B4975 P1796

the exception of tropical fish. The Board of Directors of the Condominium Association shall have the right to order the removal of any pet which is considered a nuisance, in the Board's sole discretion. In such event, the Board shall give written notice thereof to the pet owner, and the pet shall immediately thereafter be permanently removed from the Property.

4. A unit owner shall not cause anything to be affixed or attached to, hung, or displayed or placed on the exterior walls, doors, balconies or windows of the building, nor shall the unit owner place any furniture or equipment outside his unit except with the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association and further, when approved, subject to the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Directors. No clothes line or similar device shall be allowed on any portion of the Condominium property, nor shall clothes be hung anywhere except where designated by the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association. No laundry facilities or equipment shall be permitted in any unit, or elsewhere, without the written consent of the Board of Directors of the Condominium Association. This provision shall not apply to the Developer.

5. No Condominium Unit shall be used for transient, hotel or commercial purposes; provided, however, that an owner may lease his Unit a maximum of six (6) times per year, each such lease to be for a term of at least two (2) months, subject to the Association's rights of first refusal set forth in Article XII; provided, however, that so long as the Developer shall retain any interest in any unit, it may utilize one or more units of its choice from time to time, for sales office, model, prototype, or other usage for the purpose of selling apartment units in said Condominium. Further, the Developer may assign this commercial usage to such other persons or entities as it may choose.

6. No unit owner above the first (1st) floor shall install tile floors in any room other than a bathroom, and in that event, only if installed on cushions or if acoustic mortar and specifications have been secured from the Condominium Association.

7. No person shall use the common elements of the Condominium, or any part thereof, or the recreational facilities or other property owned by the Homeowners Association, or any part thereof, in any manner contrary to or not in accordance with such Rules and Regulations pertaining thereto, as from time to time promulgated by the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc.

8. No radio, television, or other electronic antenna or aerial may be erected or maintained anywhere on the Common Property, or common elements, or the exterior of any Condominium Unit or the Condominium building without written approval of the Condominium Association and Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc.

9. No tree or shrub shall be cut down, pruned, removed, or otherwise destroyed. Maintenance, replacement, removal and design of all landscaping is to be administered solely by the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. No Unit owner shall interfere with the right of the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. to accomplish said landscaping and grass maintenance.

10. No temporary buildings, structures or tents, either with or without living, sleeping or eating accommodations, shall be placed, located, kept or maintained on the Condominium Property.

11. Any loss or damage incurred by the Condominium Homeowners Association because of breach of any restrictions herein shall be reimbursed by the responsible Unit owner. The Associations may obtain recovery against such owner in the same manner as the collection and enforcement of assessments.

12. The unit owners of a Condominium unit and any property owned by the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. shall be subject to the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions recorded in Official Records Book 3651, Page 1, of the Public Records of Palm Beach County, Florida, and all amendments and supplements thereto.

13. The Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Condominium Association shall not conflict with the provisions of the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions for Windwood or the Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc.

ARTICLE XV

MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS

Responsibility for the maintenance of the condominium property and restrictions upon the alterations and improvements thereof shall be as follows:

1. Common Elements and Limited Common Elements.

(a) The Condominium Association shall be responsible for maintenance of the common elements and limited common elements, including, but not limited to, exterior repairs, painting and replacements, including stairs, roofs, exterior walls and entry porches. Notwithstanding the above, the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. shall maintain and control all landscaping, including sodding, irrigation and the planting and care of trees and shrubbery, sidewalks, parking areas, trash dumpsters, and mail boxes whether situated on common property or common elements.

(b) Alteration and Improvement. After the completion of the improvements included in the common elements which are contemplated in this Declaration, there shall be no alteration nor further improvements of common elements without prior approval, in writing, by record owners of seventy-five (75%) percent of all apartment unit owners in the Condominium and the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. if the alterations or improvements involve the exterior of the Condominium building. The cost of such alteration or improvement shall be a common expense and so assessed.

(c) Building Exterior. The Condominium Association shall determine the exterior color scheme of the building, and all exterior decoration, subject to the express approval of the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc., and shall be responsible for the maintenance thereof, and no owner shall paint an exterior wall, door, window, or any exterior surface or replace anything thereon or affix anything thereto, without the written consent of the Condominium Association. In the event that any Condominium Unit owner or the Condominium Association fails to properly maintain the Condominium Property, including the exterior of the Condominium building, the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. shall have the right to make any repairs or replacements as it deems necessary. In such event, the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. shall have the right to assess the Condominium Unit owner and/or the Condominium Association for all costs incurred in making such repairs or replacements. This special assessment shall include an administrative fee charged by the Windwood Homeowners Association, Inc. in an amount to be determined by the Board of Directors in its discretion from time to time. The assessment shall be secured by a lien against the Condominium Unit and the Common Elements appurtenant thereto and/or any property owned by the Condominium Association, which lien may be foreclosed in the event of non-payment of the assessment.

2. Units.

(a) By Association. The Condominium Association shall maintain, repair and replace as a common expense of the building:

(i) All portions of a unit contributing to the support of the condominium building, which portions shall include, but not be limited to, the outside walls of the apartment building and all fixtures on the exterior thereof (except lighting fixtures on balconies of units), boundary walls of an apartment, floors and ceiling slabs, loadbearing columns, and loadbearing walls, but shall not include screenings, windows, interior and exterior doors, glass, and interior surfaces of walls, ceilings, floors, drywall surfaces, plumbing fixtures, light fixtures, appliances and other equipment being appurtenant to the units.

(ii) All conduits, rough plumbing (but not fixtures), wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services which are contained in a unit but which services all or parts of the building, other than the unit within which contained.

(iii) All incidental damage caused to an apartment unit by such work shall be promptly repaired by the Condominium Association.

(b) By the Apartment Unit Owner. The responsibility of the apartment owner shall include:

(a) Price. The sale price for each apartment shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such Agreement and, in the absence of agreement as to price, it shall be determined by appraisers appointed by the Senior Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Palm Beach County, Florida, on the petition of the seller. 2. In the event the Condominium building is partially or totally destroyed and then rebuilt, the owners of the Condominium Parcels agree that encroachment on parts of the common elements or limited common elements, Condominium Units or recreation facilities, as afore-described, due to construction, shall be permitted, and that a valid easement for said encroachments and the maintenance thereof shall exist.

3. The total of all of said percentages equals 100% of the value of all of the land of the Condominium and improvements thereon.

5. All provisions of this Declaration and Exhibits attached hereto, and amendments thereof, shall be construed as covenants running with the land, and of every part thereof and therein, including, but not limited to, every unit and the appurtenances thereon, and every unit owner and claimant of the property, or any part thereof, or of any interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, shall be bound by all of the provisions of said Declaration and Exhibits annexed hereto and any Amendments thereof.

In each event, all assessments, voting rights and the share of the common elements shall be calculated as if such units were as originally designated on the Exhibits attached to this Declaration, notwithstanding the fact that several units are used as one, to the intent and purpose that the unit owner of such combined units shall be treated as the unit owner of as many units as have been so combined. The Developer shall have the right to use a portion of the common elements and the Condominium property for the purpose of aiding in the sale of Condominium units. The members shall also transact any other business as may properly be brought before said meeting.
